MEDICINAL.

There have been times when the wild beasts have been more merciful than human beings, and spared the woman cast to them in the arena. It is astonishing how little sympathy women have for women. In the home the mistress sees the maid with the signs of suffering she recognizes so well, but she does not lighten the sick girl's load by a touch of her finger. In the store the forewoman sees the pailor and exhaustion which mark womanly weakness, but allows nothing for them. It is work or quit. Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well, by curing the womanly diseases which undermine the health and sap the strength. "Favorite Prescription" establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness.

"When I first commenced using Dr. Pierce's medicine," writes Mrs. George A. Strong, of Gansevoort, Saratoga Co., N. Y., "I was suffering from female weakness, a disagreeable drain, bearing-down pains, weak and tired feeling all the time. I dragged around in that way for two years, then I began taking your medicine. After taking the first bottle I began to feel better. I took four bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, two of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' one of the 'Pleasant Pellets,' also used one bottle of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. Now I feel like a new person. I can't thank you enough for your kind advice and the good your medicine has done me."

"Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong, sick women well. Accept no substitute for the medicine which works wonders for weak women. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the most desirable laxative for delicate women.

Can't you eat? O' her can. Latest improvements in Teeth. Our patent suction Never falls down. Call and have a set with the above improvements. Old loose and ill-fitting plates corrected in fit, durability and comfort perfectly true to nature.

Dr. W. F. HUTCHINSON, Dentist. Corner Prince and Washington Streets, Old Alexandria, Va. Formerly Occupied by Dr. Fawcett.

AMERICAN WIVES WANTED.—Three self-styled sons of noble families are seeking wives in Chicago, and each has asked the local police department to aid him in making an alliance. Not wealth but young women of beauty and good family are desired in each instance. The applicants are: El Hassan Ben Ali, Algiers; Luigi Campagna, Venice, Italy; and Kizo Kishanawa, Tokio, Japan. All have written letters to the police head-quarters, Lieutenant Rohan, of the detective bureau, has decided to create a temporary matrimonial agency in his office for their benefit and that of any young women who may be willing to enter the contest for their favor. The latest communication is from El Hassan Ben Ali. His letter translated is in part as follows: "I am an Algerian nobleman and my family is prominent and stands high in the government. I am 20 years old and wealthy. In my country we marry at an early age, but so far I have been unable to find a woman who suited me, although I have traveled a great deal in search of one. Having heard of the beauty of Chicago's women, I take the liberty of writing you. The woman I take as my wife need not be wealthy, as I have more than enough money and an extensive estate. Tell the young women to send me their photographs and I will return a likeness of myself."

The writers all say they have never visited this country, but that they have heard from friends who have toured the United States that the Chicago women surpass all others in beauty and accomplishments.

A COURTSHIP OF 40 YEARS.—After a courtship of 40 years, Miss Marcia Buckingham, 55 years old, of Philadelphia, and Greenbury Gaither, 73 years old, of Falls Church, Va., are to be married. A license was secured in Philadelphia and the ceremony will be performed at the bride's home. The bride and bridegroom met under romantic circumstances in civil war times. Both come of old southern families. Miss Buckingham being a Baltimorean, while Mr. Gaither still lives at the family homestead at Falls Church. When the federal and Confederate troops faced each other and prepared for the struggle which has gone down in history, the Gaithers sought protection from the federal army. They were urged by the federal commander to flee from their home, which he knew was about to become a point of vantage sought by the two armies. Gaither, who was then a young man, acted as escort for his mother and sisters in the trip to Washington. Miss Buckingham's parents had also elected to seek safety in the capital city. The family parties met while in search of a temporary home and so the couple that are now to wed became acquainted. A friendship was formed which rapidly developed a tender feeling, and soon Mr. Gaither and Miss Buckingham were avowed lovers. Though time and varying fortunes have since taken them into cities many miles apart, constant correspondence has been maintained. After the marriage the bride and groom will go to the Gaither homestead to live.

NEGRO WOMEN AS FOOTPADS.—Negro women footpads are numerous in the downtown district of Philadelphia. They hunt their prey in twos and threes. The latest to fall a victim is Philip De Giovanni. After returning home when he encountered a human octopus, for just as he was opposite a small alley he was seized by three pairs of strong arms and held captive. Giovanni was frightened. The hands that held him belonged to three negro women, who searched him carefully and turned his pockets inside out. They got $52. No more booty being found, the women released Giovanni. Then he sent forth shriek after shriek for aid and a policeman hastened to his assistance. Giovanni explained his plight, described the women, and the arrest of three suspects followed. They were committed to prison.

GAVE UP WIFE, THEN LIFE. The depth of a man's love is shown in a case in Omaha, Neb., in which an unhappy husband gave up his wife to a woman who loved more dearly than she did him and who could provide for her all she desired in life, and then quietly passed into eternity so that he might not remain heir to his sacrifice by remaining a living witness to her happiness. William W. Hately, a clerk in the store of the Nebraska Clothing Company, at Omaha, was the man in this strange occurrence. A year ago he went with his pretty wife to Montana. He did not succeed financially and his wife's heart ached for absent pleasures. Then, too, she met Charles Stierle, a wealthy resident of Newton, Mont., and she grew to love him.

Hately grew despondent. He loved his wife so much that he said he would rather see her happy than be happy himself, and he told her that he would leave her, and would even assist her to secure a divorce. She agreed to this plan. Months ago the divorce was granted. She was now living with her new and wealthy husband in a fit home.

Hately soon came back to Omaha. Friends secured him a place with the Thomas Kilpatrick Company, and they noticed that he was brooding over his troubles. He walked upon the lawn in front of Mrs. N. P. Sasse's boarding house. Calmly placing a bullet through his brain, dying instantly. Three letters were found, one to his two boys, one to his former wife, and one to his mother at Four Cross Row, Gateshead, England. His letter to his wife was brief. It reads: "My dear wife, my love, I love you. I will leave you at 1 o'clock. May God bless you. I will leave $10,000. My love was greater than words can tell."

This was simply signed "Bill." Hately's life was insured for the amount named, he having kept up the policy payable to his wife, even after she married another. His mother is said to be a wealthy English woman, but he would never seek assistance from her.

A Cure for Cholera Infantum. "Last May," says Mrs. Curtis Baker, of Bookwalter, Ohio, "an infant child of our neighbor was suffering from cholera infantum. The doctor had given up all hopes of recovery. I took a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to the house, telling them I felt sure it would do good if used according to directions. In two days the time the child had fully recovered and is now (nearly a year since) a vigorous, healthy girl. I have recommended this Remedy frequently and have never known it to fail in any single instance." For sale by Richard Gibson, Druggist.

His Sight Threatened. "While picnicking last month my 11-year-old boy was poisoned by some weed or plant," says W. H. Dibble, of Sioux City, Ia. "He rubbed the poison off his hands into his eyes and for a while we were afraid he would lose his sight. Finally a neighbor recommended DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. The first first application helped him and in a few days he was as well as ever." Forskin diseases, cuts, burns, scalds, wounds, insect bites, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is sure cure. Believes piles at once. Beware of Counterfeits. For sale by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.
